Sarah Burr

Sarah Burr is a name synonymous with excellence, leadership, and passion in the world of pickleball. Widely regarded as one of Australia's top female professional pickleball players, Sarah has been a driving force behind the sport's rapid growth both nationally and internationally. She made history as the first Australian ever drafted to Major League Pickleball (MLP) in the United States—an achievement that firmly cemented her place on the global stage. Currently, she serves as the captain of the Gold Coast Glory team in Major League Pickleball Australia, where she leads with a combination of skill, determination, and strategic vision.

A fierce competitor on the court, Sarah's medal tally is nothing short of remarkable. She has claimed dozens of podium finishes, including multiple triple crowns at prestigious events such as the World Pickleball Championships in Bali and the Australian Pickleball Championships. Her recent triumphs include securing medals at the PPA Vietnam Open and the PWR New Delhi, showcasing her ability to dominate across diverse international arenas. Most notably, she took home gold at the PPA Melbourne in women's doubles and followed it up with another gold at the Melbourne Grand Slam in mixed doubles—demonstrating her versatility and prowess in both singles and doubles formats.

Off the court, Sarah is equally passionate about fostering the next generation of pickleball talent. As a dedicated coach, she travels extensively, sharing her expertise and inspiring players of all ages and skill levels. Whether working with beginners or elite athletes, Sarah's commitment to growing the sport is evident in her hands-on approach and infectious enthusiasm. Her influence extends beyond coaching, as she proudly serves as an official ambassador for the Australian Pickleball Championships, a role that highlights her dedication to promoting the sport across the country.

With her unparalleled achievements, leadership, and advocacy for pickleball, Sarah Burr is more than just a player—she's a trailblazer shaping the future of the sport in Australia and beyond. As she continues to break barriers and set new records, there's no doubt that Sarah's journey will inspire countless others to pick up a paddle and join the pickleball revolution.
